Wyandotte NATION TITLE 2 ATTORNEY GENERAL INDEX

Wyandotte NATION TITLE 2 ATTORNEY GENERAL INDEX ........................................................................................................i

TITLE 2 ATTORNEY GENERAL ........................................................................................................................................... 1

Section 101. Establishment......................................................................................................................................................... 1

Section 102. Term........................................................................................................................................................................... 1

Section 103. Qualifications ............................................................................................................................................................ 1

Section 104. Duties ........................................................................................................................................................................... 1
TITLE 2
ATTORNEY GENERAL

Section 101. Establishment.
There is hereby established the office of Attorney General of the Wyandotte Nation.

Section 102. Term.
The Attorney General shall be appointed by the Board of Directors of the Wyandotte Nation for a term of one year. The salary of the Attorney General shall be set by Board of Directors. The position of Attorney General shall be a part-time appointment unless otherwise specified by the Board of Directors.

Section 103. Qualifications.
The Attorney General shall be a practicing attorney, licensed to practice law in the State of Oklahoma, and admitted to practice in the State Courts of Oklahoma and the Federal District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma.

Section 104. Duties.
The duties of the Attorney General are as follows:

(a.) If requested, to attend all regular and special meetings of Board of Directors, to give advice and counsel on all legal matters pertaining to the Constitution and the business of the Board of Directors.

(b.) To give legal advice and counsel, upon request, to the Chief and Second Chief, as well as to all committees and other bodies and officials established by the Constitution or created by the Board of Directors.

(c.) To draft in proper form ordinances and resolutions for presentation to the Board of Directors, when requested.

(d.) To codify and organize all ordinances of the Wyandotte Nation.

(e.) To investigate all matters requested by the Chief or the Board of Directors, and to make reports and recommendations in such matters.

(f.) To represent the Wyandotte Nation and its officers in any litigation when so directed by the Chief or the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the Attorney General shall not represent the Wyandotte Nation in any claim against the United States of America in the U.S. Court of Claims, unless specifically employed by the Wyandotte Nation for that purpose, by contract duly approved by the Secretary of the Interior. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to employ any attorney as a claims attorney.
(g.) To conduct and argue suits and appeals in the Supreme Court of the Wyandotte Nation.

(h.) When the Attorney General considers it in the interests of the Wyandotte Nation, to personally conduct and argue any case in the District Court of the Wyandotte Nation in which the Wyandotte Nation is interested.