2022-2023 WINTER CLOTHING PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Eligible to Tribal Citizens, infant to senior in high school Nation-wide

Remember… Ring up each child separate. There should be individual receipts for each child, with program eligible items only. (No groceries, household items, other family member clothing or any other non-program items on the receipt.)

Eligible purchases include: coats, gloves, earmuffs, scarves, winter hats (no ball caps), pants, shirts, socks, underwear, pajamas, slippers and shoes/boots.

Non-eligible purchases include, but are not limited to: food, swim wear, shorts, and accessories such as; hair clips, headbands, hair care products, jewelry, perfume, make-up, etc.

Gift Card Program: Walmart gift cards can only be used for eligible items listed above. It is mandatory to return the original receipts from Walmart cards given to you. Please have individual receipts and show $200 spent for each child. We have provided a return envelope for your convenience. Receipts from other stores will not be accepted. If receipts are not returned, you will not be allowed to use any program that utilizes the Walmart Gift Card. However, you will be able to use the Reimbursement Program. Only original receipts, dated October 1, 2022 – February 28, 2023, will be accepted. Please write the name of the child on each receipt to ensure we give you proper credit. Complete all application questions including roll #’s. Incomplete applications will be delayed or may not be processed.

Reimbursement Program: $200 per child. Please purchase separately for each child. Do not combine any children on same receipt and do not have non-eligible items on any receipt. Complete all application questions including roll #’s. When you are completing the grid on the application, don’t forget to account for discounts/promotions on your totals. Only original receipts, dated October 1, 2022 – February 28, 2023, will be accepted. Please remember to write the child’s name on their receipt. Incomplete applications will be delayed or may not be processed.

STORE RECEIPTS: Receipt must show purchase date, individual item price, subtotal, tax, total and payment information (visa/store card/paypal etc.). And be legible. Please DO NOT HIGHLIGHT OR USE TAPE ON RECEIPTS! Please send full receipt. Don’t send smudged or tiny receipts that we can’t see. If we can’t see it we can’t count it. Remember…One child on each receipt! Do not combine children on the same receipt and there should not be any non-eligible items on receipts.

ON-LINE RECEIPTS: Only send full receipt/full email. No screen shots or partial receipts. They must show purchase date, individual item price, subtotal, tax, total and payment information (visa/store card/paypal etc.). Not just a summary. If you are using “after-pay” or related payment method, we can only reimburse from an actual proof of payment. Remember… Individual Receipts for Each Child, with Program Eligible Items Only. Do not combine more than one child on any receipt or have any non-eligible items on receipt.
