PROTECTIVE ORDER

This is to inform you about what you can do if you are being abused by someone in your life. As a victim, you have the right to ask a Judge for a Protective Order. A Protective Order from the Court orders the person who has been harassing, stalking or abusing you to stop doing so.

A Protective Order is only a court paper. YOU must take other steps to plan for your safety and the safety of your child(ren).

What is a Protective Order (P.O.)?

A Protective Order is a Civil Court Order that is designed to stop abusive behavior and to protect you from the abuser. It offers civil legal protection from Domestic Abuse to both male and female victims. It can set limits on the abusers behavior such as:

- Order the abuser to stop abusing you and your child(ren);
- Tell the abuser to leave and stay away from your home, work place and/or family;
- Direct the abuser to have no contact with you, including no phone calls, letters and/or messages through other people;
- Order the abuser to stay away from the child(ren), the babysitter, day care and/or school.
- A Protective Order is not a punishment for the abuser. It is intended to prevent future abuse.

Am I eligible to file for a Protective Order?

You can seek legal protection from acts of domestic abuse, emotional harm, sexual assault, stalking or harassment committed by a "family or household member" against you or your minor child(ren). This means you can seek protection from:

- Spouse
- Former spouse
- Child
- Person related by blood
- Person related by marriage
- Present spouse of an ex-spouse
- Person who resides with you
- Person who formerly resided with you
- Person who has child(ren) with you
- Person who you were previously dating or in an intimate relationship with

(DEFINITIONS PER WYANDOTTE NATION DOMESTIC & FAMILY VIOLENCE CODE, TITLE 7 SECTION 4)

"Domestic Abuse" means any act of physical harm, or the threat of imminent physical harm which is committed by an adult, emancipated minor, or minor age sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) years against another adult, emancipated minor or minor child who are family or household members.

"Emotional Abuse" means the repeated use of threats, intimidation, or extreme ridicule such that it would inflict humiliation and/or emotional suffering upon a reasonable person and does actually inflict such suffering upon a protected person. Emotional abuse also include the harm done to minors by domestic abuse committed in the presence of those minors.

"Sexual Assault" means any unwelcome sexual contact which:

- (i) Causes another person to involuntarily engage in sexual activity by force; and*
- (ii) Causes another person to involuntarily engage in sexual activity by threat of force or duress.*

"Harassment" means a knowing and willful course or pattern of conduct by an adult, emancipated minor, or minor thirteen (13) years of age or older, directed at a specific person which seriously alarms or annoys the person, and which serves no legitimate purpose.

"Stalking" means the willful, malicious, and repeated following of a person by an adult, emancipated minor or minor thirteen (13) years of age or older, with the intent of placing the person in reasonable fear of death or injury.

What types of Protective Orders are available?

There are two types of Protective Orders available for you:

- Emergency Temporary Order of Protection (also known as an Ex Parte Temporary Emergency Protective Order) – The Petition for Protective Order must clearly show that an act of domestic abuse has occurred.
- Regular Order of Protection (Non-emergency)

How much does it cost to get a Protective Order? Do I need a lawyer?

There are no fees to file a Protective Order. However, if the Judge finds that the Protective Order was filed for frivolous reasons, then the Judge may decide to order the Petitioner to pay court costs.

You do not need an Attorney to file a Protective Order. However, if you wish, you can have an Attorney represent you. Wyandotte Nation Family Violence Prevention Program may also be able to assist you. They provide services for domestic violence and sexual assault.

How do I get a Protective Order?

Step 1. Read and review this information on a Petition for Protective Order.

Step 2. Have information about you and about your abuser on hand.

- Identifiers, DOB, SSN, etc.;
- Abuser's complete address;
- Specific facts describing the act of domestic abuse (what happened in detail- who, what, when (date/time), where, why, etc.)

Step 3. Fill out the Petition for Protective Order (included in this packet). Carefully fill out the Petition. On the Petition, you will be the "Petitioner" and your abuser will be the "Respondent". When describing about the most recent incident of domestic abuse be specific. Include details and dates. However, remember to be honest. Do not sign the Petition unless it is in front of the Court Clerk or a Notary Public!

If you need assistance, Wyandotte Nation Family Violence Prevention Program may be able to assist you in filling out the Petition.

Step 4. The Court Clerk will review your Petition. After you finish filling out your Petition, take it to the Court Clerk. The Court Clerk will review your Petition to ensure that all the necessary information is provided.

Step 5. Appear for an Ex Parte/Emergency Temporary Protective Order Hearing. When you appear before the Judge, you will be required to answer questions under oath. The Judge will decide whether to issue the Emergency Temporary Protective Order, and will set a date for a Show Cause hearing. You will be given an Emergency Temporary Protection Order that state the date and time of your hearing, if the Judge issues the Emergency Temporary Protection Order.

Step 6. Service of Process. A copy of your Petition and the Emergency Temporary Protection Order must be served on the Respondent. Do not try and serve the Respondent in person with the papers yourself. The Court will be responsible for serving the Respondent.

If the Judge is ordering the Respondent to leave your residence, contact Wyandotte Nation Police Department to ask how you should proceed with doing so.

Step 7. Show Cause Hearing. You must appear at the Show Cause Hearing. If you do not appear, your Emergency Temporary Protection Order will expire and you will no longer be protected. If the Respondent does not show up for the hearing, after being served, the Judge may still grant you a Final Protection Order, or the Judge may order a new hearing date.

At the Show Cause Hearing, you will show why you need the Protective Order. The best evidence is your honesty, verbal testimony. But other evidence can include:

- Police report(s);
- Pictures;
- Copies of criminal records;
- Anything else to show you have suffered acts of Domestic Abuse and need certain relief and protection.

However, the Judge will listen to your story even if you have no evidence. Tell your story in your own words, but leave out details that have nothing to do with the physical abuse or threats of harm.

Remember:

- Be on time;
- Dress clean and neat;
- Speak directly to the Judge;
- Always address the Judge as “Your Honor” and always stand when speaking;
- If you do not understand a question that the Judge asks you, just say so;
- If you do not know the answer to a question, just say so. Never make up an answer;
- Be honest.

How do I get a copy of the Final Order of Protective?

After Court, if granted, the Court Clerk will prepare the Final Order of Protection and you will be given a certified copy. Review it carefully before you leave. If you have any questions about it, ask the Court Clerk. If something is wrong (misspelled names, etc.) or missing information, ask the Court Clerk to correct the Order before you leave. Keep a certified copy of the Order with you at all times.
